Bloomfield Community to Help with Flood Relief

MAY 04TH 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

Bloomfield Community to Help with Flood Relief

Bloomfield, Missouri - The Trinity United Methodist Youth Group, Bloomfield Schools, and Modern Woodmen will sponsor a Flood Relief Drive with Hope International at the Bloomfield Town & Country on Friday, May 5, 2017 from 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

The community is coming together to help our neighbors who have lost almost everything they own. Hope International is providing a truck and will deliver the much needed supplies to the Van Buren and surrounding areas who have been devastated by flooding.

Items needed are bleach, wipes, and other cleaning supplies, rubber gloves, clothesline and clothespins, personal hygiene items, paper towels, scouring pads, rags, brooms, mops, scrub brushes, buckets, trash bags of all sizes, and individually wrapped snacks.

Please donate if you can between the hours of 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. on Friday!
