2017 Bloomfield High School Girls Basketball Awards

MAY 10TH 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

2017 Bloomfield High School Girls Basketball Awards

Bloomfield, Missouri - Bloomfield High School held their annual Athletic Honors Ceremony on Tuesday, April 25, 2017 at the Bloomfield High School gym along with the middle school athletes.

Coaches for the girls basketball team is Louis Bell.

Awards presented were Most Valuable Player, Defensive Player of the Year, Offensive Player of the Year, Most Improved Player of the Year and the Wildcat Award.

"First game of the season and we score off of the tip - Jenna Yates," commented head coach Louis Bell. "then Kaylee Roper hits a 3-pointer and the crowd went wild!"

"Well the rest of the game did not go quite so well against South Pemiscot, but we faced them again in the District Tournament. I could not believe how much these girls improved over the course of their first season," continued Bell.

"I can't express enough of how proud of these girls I am. To be as successful as they are in all aspects of their lives and to have the courage they had to compete against other girls who have been playing basketball for many years on top of doing that in front of everyone who came out to the games. Believe me it took a lot of courage!"

Most Valuable Player goes to Tyrah Hartle.

Defensive Player of the Year goes to Kaylee Roper.

Offensive Player of the Year goes to Michaela Tidwell.

Most Improved Player of the Year goes to Nicole Roper.

Wildcat Award goes to Lily Warrick.

Nicole Roper Joins 1,000th Point Club at Bloomfield

MAY 08TH 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

Nicole Roper Joins 1,000th Point Club at Bloomfield

Bloomfield, Missouri - During the Bloomfield Middle School and High School Awards Ceremony Nicole Roper received a special volleyball for her 1,000th assist during the 2016 - 2017 volleyball season.

On September 22, 2016 at the Bloomfield vs Woodland home game, Nicole Roper became a part of the 1,000 point club!

"Since her freshman year, this girl has put in countless hours of practice working on one thing," commented Sherilyn Johnson, Bloomfield head volleyball coach. "Most of the girls get a break and opportunity to work on different skills, but when you are the setter you must tirelessly work on one skill. Whether it is chasing down crazy passes or setting 75 more balls so the hitters can get "just one more", being the only setter is hard work."

"It was truly a pleasure tossing each and every ball to this girl for the last three years because while doing that my constructive criticism has all paid off."

Congratulations Nicole!

2017 Bloomfield High School Varsity Volleyball Awards

MAY 08TH 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

2017 Bloomfield High School Varsity Volleyball Awards

Bloomfield, Missouri - Bloomfield High School held their annual Athletic Honors Ceremony on Tuesday, April 25, 2017 at the Bloomfield High School gym along with the middle school athletes.

Coaches for the varsity volleyball team are Sherilyn Johnson and Che Jones.

Playing on the Varsity volleyball team are Dakota Stroup, Cayla Mayberry, Lilly Warrick, Creylee Huddleston, Jewel Chism, Nicole Roper, Kaley Roper, Bailey Below, Eva Hester, Emily McGowen, and Tyrah Hartle.

Awards presented were the Wildcat Award, Offensive Player of the Year, Serving Award of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year, and the Most Valuable Player of the Year.

The Defensive Player of the Year Award goes to Kaley Roper.

"She is a girl who a lot of time had to push herself in practice and did a great job of it," commented Johnson. "She did a great job of it. She stands out in every defensive drill we do and is extremely fun to watch. When I asked the girls who worked the hardest in practice this year, she was the answer."

The Wildcat Award goes to Lilly Warrick.

"I feel Lilly is a wildcat through and through," stated Johnson. "She was the one who was the most comfortable screaming and getting the girls excited during practice and games. She likes to have a little fun and does a good job balancing silly and serious."

Serving Award of the Year goes to Nicole Roper.

"I was really hard on the girls when it came to serving this year," continued Johnson. "I felt like we needed to strengthen that part of our game and have the ability to put pressure on the other team's serve receive line."

Next was the Offensive Player of the Year Award. it goes to Bailey Below.

"This girl surprises me every single year on how much she improves," commented Johnson. "This year she improved in her volleyball skills as well as her attitude and leadership on the court. She can hold her own all the way around the court, but definitely stands out on the front row!"

The Most Valuable Player Award goes to a girl who tallied 235 kills, 232 digs and 53 aces.

"There are so many great things I could say about this girl, but if I could choose one word to describe her it would be CLUTCH," state Johnson. "In the game against Advance this year we were in a rut, I found a hole and called a timeout. I asked her to hit a very small spot on the court that was a sharp angle from a position that she doesn't even play, just thinking she would get it in the vicinity and we could manage from there. This girl went out there and hit it dead on for a kill."

The MVP goes to Jewel Chism.

Bloomfield High School JV Volleyball Awards

MAY 01ST 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

Bloomfield High School JV Volleyball Awards

Bloomfield, Missouri - Bloomfield High School held their annual Athletic Honors Ceremony on Tuesday, April 25, 2017 at the Bloomfield High School gym along with the middle school athletes.

Coaches for the Bloomfield High School girls JV Volleyball team are Sherilyn Johnson and Che Jones.

Playing on the JV Volleyball team are Haley Persfull, Tyrah Hartle, Creylee Huddleston, Natalie Powell, Eva Hester, Michaela Tidwell, Jenna Yates, Shelby Sandage, and Emily McGowen.

Awards presented were the Wildcat Award, Offensive Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year, and the Most Valuable Player of the Year.

The Defensive Player of the Year Award went to Tyrah Hartle. "She not only would hit the floor, but would communicate to her team no matter where she was," commented Johnson. "When she was on, there wouldn't be a ball that would hit the floor. She did a fantastic job helping out on varsity when we needed a little defensive boost, especially during the Notre Dame game."

The Offensive Player of the Year Award went to Eva Hester. "We can rely on her in the front now. She would even hit the occasional line for us."

The JV Wildcat Award went to Natalie Powell. "This award is a combination of attitude, effort, and improvement and I never heard this girl complain. Both coach and I felt like she put forth 100% effort in practice."

The Most Valuable JV Player Award went to Creylee Huddleston. "She was the glue for the JV for sure," continued Johnson. "No matter the situation, they could rely on her to play smart and consistent. Shew ill be right next to Tyrah on the floor. She plays hard and plays to win."

Bloomfield High School awards for each sport will be spotlighted in separate articles on the ShowMe Times.
