

TOP

Daily Devotional, Thursday, May 25, 2017 - Our God of Comfort

MAY 25TH 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

Daily Devotional, Thursday, May 25, 2017 - Our God of Comfort

2 Corinthians 1:3-4

God's care for us extends even to the details of our lives. He knows when His children hurt, and He longs to offer comfort (Isa. 49:13).

The Lord's compassion is personal, continuous, and always available. We receive His comfort through the Holy Spirit, who lives within us. There is no situation or time when He is inaccessible to the believer—we can be consoled and reassured at any moment, day or night.

Consider how the compassion of God was demonstrated through Jesus' life. He interacted even with the “untouchables”—people whose bodies were infected with a contagious disease (Luke 17:11-14). And no sickness of ours will prevent Him from caring for us.

When Jesus saw people with medical conditions, in compassion He not only healed them physically but also gave an even greater comfort—new life through the forgiveness of sins. And while our infirmities may remain, the Lord lovingly strengthens us to persevere (2 Corinthians 12:7-9).

As for the messes we get into, notice how Peter's betrayal of Christ was met with forgiveness and reinstatement (John 21:15-17), and Thomas's doubts were answered by Jesus Himself (John 20:27). Our mistakes won't stop Him from loving us. Even to His enemies, Jesus left the way open for repentance.

God's comfort and care are adequate for anything we face, whether it's poor health, insufficient finances, or family trouble. Then, once we've experienced His consolation, we're to become bearers of comfort to others (2 Corinthians 1:4). Remember, people everywhere are in great need of His compassion.

LAST UPDATED ON MAY 25TH 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

<https://showmetimes.com/Blogpost/v7hv/Daily-Devotional-Thursday-May-25-2017--Our-God-of-Comfort>

Go to post

More from ShowMe Times:

TOP

Daily Devotional, Wednesday, May 24, 2017 - The Great Divide

MAY 24TH 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

Daily Devotional, Wednesday, May 24, 2017 - The Great Divide

Isaiah 55:8-9

When we picture Jesus as our bridge to God, it is natural to think about the things that separate us from the Father. Therefore, let's examine three metaphors that describe the barriers between us and almighty God.

First, we are separated by height. Scripture calls God the "Most High" and describes Him as "high and lifted up" (Psalm 9:2; Isa. 6:1 ESV). He is above creation and unconstrained by gravity, time, or space. Furthermore, He declares, "For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways" (Isa. 55:9). Without question, God is above man.

Next, we are separated by distance. Moses experienced God through the burning bush, but even in that holy moment, the Lord warned him not to come too close (Ex. 3:5). Later, when the people of Israel built the temple and tabernacle, God warned them not to enter the Holy of Holies except for a single specific time each year, and then only one person was allowed to enter under strict conditions (Heb. 9:7). There is a distance between man and God that cannot be breached.

Third, we are separated by light and fire (1 John 1:5; Deut. 4:24). We know that staring into a giant spotlight can cause blindness, and standing near a flame can burn our skin. In a similar way, if we were to stand in the presence of holy God, we would be consumed.

Why did Jesus come to us? The reason is that only the perfect, sinless Son of God could reach the Father, come close to Him, and stand in His presence. And, in Christ, we can share in that intimacy.

LAST UPDATED ON MAY 24TH 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

<https://showmetimes.com/Blogpost/v7hm/Daily-Devotional-Wednesday-May-24-2017--The-Great-Divide>

Go to post

More from ShowMe Times:

TOP

Daily Devotional, Tuesday, May 23, 2017 - Our Bridge to God

---

MAY 23RD 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

Daily Devotional, Tuesday, May 23, 2017 - Our Bridge to God

John 14:1-6

The last verse in today's passage makes a powerful and unequivocal statement. Jesus clearly says, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me."

People have taken exception to that statement for 2,000 years. Some say the Lord didn't mean for it to be taken literally. Others categorically reject His authority to make the claim at all. However, as believers in the lordship of Jesus Christ, we must take what He says as truth. So let's think for a moment about the word picture in that verse.

When Jesus calls Himself "the way," many people imagine a one-way street. They take this to mean that there are lots of roads, but He is the only one that leads to the Father. That's a good image, but I think we can do even better.

I like to think of Jesus not as a road but as a bridge—our bridge to God. Consider the apostle Paul's warning in Romans 3:23: "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (emphasis added). The picture here is of a great chasm between us and God, and we cannot make it across. Unable to bridge the gap, we fall.

So, what is the only way across a chasm? A bridge, of course. And that's what Jesus is for us. He stands in the gap, providing safe passage across the void and into the loving arms of the Father.

Meditate on this mental image. When we imagine ourselves helpless and lost—with heaven just out of reach, beyond a great divide—we can begin to appreciate the true power of the cross.

LAST UPDATED ON MAY 23RD 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

<https://showmetimes.com/Blogpost/v7hf/Daily-Devotional-Tuesday-May-23-2017--Our-Bridge-to-God>

Go to post

More from ShowMe Times:

TOP

Daily Devotional, Monday, May 22, 2017 - In the Fullness of Time

MAY 22ND 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

Daily Devotional, Monday, May 22, 2017 - In the Fullness of Time

Galatians 4:4-5

In eternity past, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit planned and created heaven and earth. Yet even before Adam breathed his first breath, the Lord knew sin would enter the world, causing mankind to be separated from Him. However, a plan for our redemption was already in place, and in the fullness of time, the Son of God came as a baby and lived on the earth.

The Lord doesn't do anything haphazardly. Every plan of His is predetermined and meticulously carried out at just the right time. And this truth doesn't apply to just the big events in human history. Since He has a specific plan for every believer, He works to accomplish His goals in each Christian's life. He ordained the day of our birth, has complete knowledge of what each day will hold, and knows how long we'll live on this earth. And just as He did when Christ was born, God will, in the fullness of time, execute each part of His will for your life and mine.

However, although His plans for us are good, the only way we'll see His purposes fulfilled in our life is by submitting to Him. He's promised to work all things for our good when we love Him and are called according to His purpose (Rom. 8:28).

Are you letting the Lord have His way in your life? Even when the need seems urgent, a person with a spirit yielded to God waits patiently for the heavenly Father's plans to unfold at just the right time. The One with complete knowledge and wisdom knows what He's doing. Wait for the fullness of His time.

LAST UPDATED ON MAY 22ND 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

<https://showmetimes.com/Blogpost/v7gg/Daily-Devotional-Monday-May-22-2017--In-the-Fullness-of-Time>

Go to post

More from ShowMe Times:

Daily Devotional, Friday, May 19, 2017 - Standing on a Firm Foundation

MAY 19TH 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

Daily Devotional, Friday, May 19, 2017 - Standing on a Firm Foundation

Isaiah 52:7; Romans 10:15

When was the last time you had a Bible study on the topic of feet? In all likelihood, you haven't ever had such a lesson. In fact, you might even be squeamish at the thought of focusing on feet. The apostle Paul, however, did not avoid the subject. He made feet a focal point of one of his most powerful messages: the discussion in Ephesians 6:10-18 about the armor of God. Let's take a closer look.

Four times in four verses (vv. 11-14 NIV), Paul declares that the armor's purpose—the value in putting it on piece by piece—lies in its ability to help us “stand,” “stand against the devil's schemes,” “stand [our] ground,” and “stand firm.” And of course, armor would be incomplete without shoes—which Paul identified as “the preparation of the gospel of peace” (v. 15). Clearly, he knew Christians needed to be on a solid foundation when facing opposition.

The Roman soldier's sandals had an often overlooked feature: a long spike at the heel of the shoe. Its purpose was to allow the warrior to plant his feet firmly in the ground when an opponent approached. With his feet secured in this way, the soldier had an obvious advantage: He would be able to stand his ground. This part of his uniform enabled him to keep his footing even as he faced the danger.

That is precisely what the heavenly Father wants for every one of His children: the ability to stand firm in the face of troubles. This is possible, however, only when we plant our feet on a firm foundation—the foundation of faith in Jesus Christ. Is your faith well grounded?

Go to post

More from ShowMe Times:

SUBSCRIBE TO "FAITH MATTERS"

ShowMe Gold Sponsors