Lady Cats Beat Notre Dame in District Semifinal

SEPTEMBER 26TH 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

Lady Cats Beat Notre Dame in District Semifinal

Cape Girardeau, Missouri - The Lady Cats beat the Notre Dame Lady Bulldogs in the Class 1, District 1 District semifinal 5 - 4 and will play the Kennett Lady Indians in the District Championship on Wednesday.

"They played so good today. They really battled until the end," commented Dexter head tennis coach Jenni Rinehart. "Malia Cook and Abbie Dorton were the last ones on the court and they did a fabulous job of closing the match out. Morgan Aldridge had a very well played match with Grace also."

"All of the girls gave 110% today and it showed with the win," continued Rinehart. "We are headed to Kennett on Wednesday for the District Championship"

"Jadyn Northcutt and Rachel Singh talked to each other the entire time and that got them the win for doubles," stated Rinehart. "They know exactly where the other one is on the court and that makes for great teamwork."

"Nicole Sells had a hard match against Burdin. They went back and forth on points and she fought hard"

"Aldridge and Sells doubles match was really fun to watch. They played their hearts out!"

"These girls are playing outstanding right now!"

Dexter girls tennis 5-4 over Notre Dame:
