DMS 7th Grade Lady Cats Beat Twin Rivers in Low Scoring Game

Dexter, Missouri - The T.S. Hill Middle School 7th grade Lady Cats basketball team hosted the Twin Rivers Lady Royals in their first home game of the season. It was a low scoring game, but the Little Lady Cats held on for the win 16-14.

Dexter's Caitlin Giles #14 had a game-high 8 points. Molly Simmons #25 tallied one bucket and Emily Hester #32 finished with a bucket and a couple from the charity stripe.

Hannah Bader had a team-high 7 points for the Lady Royals. Rachel Rommel recorded 5 points.

The Little Lady Cats will be back in action on Monday, October 9th when they travel to Woodland. They will also travel to Poplar Bluff on Tuesday, October 10th before returning home on Thursday, October 12th when they host Neelyville.
