Chili Luncheon to Benefit Funeral Expenses

OCTOBER 06TH 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

Chili Luncheon to Benefit Funeral Expenses

Dexter, Missouri - There will be a Chili Luncheon on Saturday, October 7, 2017 from 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. at the American Legion Post #59 located across from West Park in Dexter.

Proceeds will benefit funeral costs for the family of Amber Nicole Ball.

A donation of $5.00 per person is asked, however you can always donate more.

Chili, crackers, dessert and a drink all for $5.00 is a great way to raise money for the family.

The public is encouraged to attend! Special thanks to Harps Grocery Store and the American Legion for their generous donations.

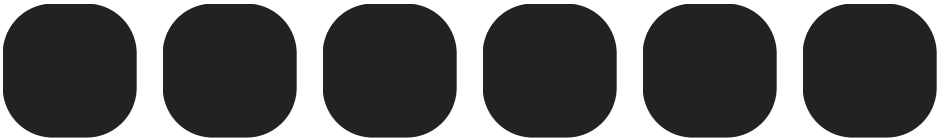

Amber passed away on September 9, 2017 in Colorado at the age of 24 and was the daughter of Terry Wheeler and Terry Lynn Phillips. She was a 2012 graduate of Dexter High School.

She was also a loving mother to two wonderful sons, Mason and Connor Ball. Her sisters April DeBerry and Amanda Meyer survive as well and live in Dexter and Essex.
