Clay Hurst, Farmers Insurance District Manager stated that as representatives of Farmers Insurance, that we are very thankful to have been able to present this support now for the 2nd consecutive year (to the Stoddard County Children's Home). Agents in the various communities of Stoddard County, are very thankful and appreciative to be able to represent Farmers Insurance; a company committed to investing into the communities we serve.

"We have each personally donated to the Children's Home in the past, and will continue to do so."

After informal conversations with the board members present, the local Farmers Insurance agents indicated that they are even more impressed with the services that this great organization provides to the children and families of Stoddard county. They sincerely appreciate the Children's Home board members and administrators for their hard work and dedication in serving the county in this capacity.
