Tom Bischof Celebrates 20 Years at Bagby Wealth Management

JANUARY 23RD 2018 BY DEE LOFLIN

Tom Bischof Celebrates 20 Years at Bagby Wealth Management

Dexter, Missouri - Tom Bischof has been with Bagby Wealth Management for 20 years. The management and staff honored Tom with a luncheon to celebrate his milestone anniversary on Thursday, January 11, 2018. Beth Bischof, Tom's wife, was also in attendance at the luncheon.

Tom currently serves as Director of Compliance and Legal Affairs for Bagby Wealth Management. His responsibilities include maintaining regulatory compliance across all firm activities including trading, operations, technology, security, licensing, and communications. Additionally, he develops company policies and contracts that provide structure to the firm.

In January 1998, Tom joined Bagby Investment Consultants (now Bagby Wealth Management) as an Investment Advisor. For the transition, he completed courses at Southeast Missouri University in business and finance and then obtained Series 7, 63, 66 and 24 securities registrations plus a Missouri Life Insurance License. Previously, Tom practiced law in Dexter, which included estate planning, probate, wills, tax planning, Social Security, business, banking, and corporate law after obtaining his law degree from the University of Missouri, Kansas City.

Tom and his wife Beth live in Bloomfield where he remains active in the community. He has served on the Dexter Regional Healthcare Foundation Board of Directors from 2000 to 2015. He assisted with fundraisers for the Bloomfield PTO from the mid-1990s until 2009 and served as a member of the Bloomfield City Council from 2007 - 2011.

Bagby Wealth Management is an independent Registered Investment Advisory firm (RIA) with roots in Dexter since 1984. The management and staff of Bagby Wealth Management feel very fortunate to have Tom on board. He serves a vital role within the firm and the firm looks forward to many years ahead.

#DexterFirst Kathleen's Treasure Cove By Nancy Nelson Vines

Kathleen's Treasure Cove at 25 North Walnut Street in Downtown Dexter is like a mini-beach getaway. Owner Kathleen Dover says the color scheme of coral, yellow, various blues, and tan is meant to conjure up the image of water, sky, sun, and sand, and she chose to call her business a “cove” rather than a shop or store because one room leads into another, as a hidden island cove might lead a visitor to unknown delights. The seashore reference and name of the business are no accident—they reflect Dover’s long-time love of the ocean.

In fact, much of Dover’s life and philosophy are incorporated into the business she has owned for the past eight years. Kathleen’s Treasure Cove—Special gifts for special people, is the official logo of her store. A beach-themed sitting area complete with coffee pot and packaged snacks serves as the entryway to Kathleen’s. Visitors, as she fondly refers to those who patronize her business, are encouraged to “sit a spell” and share the treasure of friendship and pleasant conversation. “Kathleen’s is not just a place to shop, Dover explains, “it is a ministry more than a business.”

Dover’s boutique does harbor a treasure of merchandise. Among some of her more unique items are Tervis Tumblers, wood wick candles, La’Paige Lipstick, and outerwear accessory items. She is the only retailer in Missouri to offer the La’Paige line. The Treasure Cove contains a book room where Bibles, sympathy books, and works by local and regional authors are available. Dover promotes Southeast Missouri authors by sponsoring occasional book signings in her store.

Her most popular item, which continues to sell throughout the fall and winter, is the Oofos line of flip flops, slides, and clogs. “People swear by this line of footwear, and I am one of them,” Dover says. “I have customers who wear nothing else on their feet, year-round. Some have had chronic back or foot pain, which they say has been relieved by wearing Oofos. I order them regularly.”

Fashion jewelry is available at Kathleen’s, as well as local art, and a few seasonal items, such as holiday tea towels. An additional service provided at Kathleen’s is a private tanning area. Tanning is available by appointment or walk-in and follows the regular store schedule.

Kathleen’s Treasure Cove is located at 25 North Walnut and is open Tuesday through Friday 11:00 to 5:00 and Saturday 11:00 to whenever. Be sure to stop in Kathleen’s, which is “More than a place to shop...a place where old friends gather and new friends meet.”

#DexterFirst Q's Comics & Games By Nancy Nelson Vines

As its name implies, Q's Comics & Games is a store that sells comics and games; however, what the name doesn't tell you, is that this business not only sells merchandise, but also provides hours of entertainment and fun for those whose passion is gaming. "We hold weekly tournaments for our top three games, and maybe a few others," says owner Travis Quertermous. Three game rooms provide ample space for participants and on-lookers to actively engage in this popular pastime.

Quertermous says that his business springs from his own-lifelong interest, which is shared with his son Brandon, who is co-owner of the shop. "About seven years ago we began attending ComicCon (comic book convention) as a hobby—I have been reading and collecting comics my whole life—and a couple of years later began buying and selling comics.

Q's has a room totally devoted to old comic books. In the Back Issue Room prices range from one dollar to five dollars, with the oldest comic dating to 1945. New comics are also available, and new issues are received weekly.

In addition to comics and games packs of collectible trading cards are sold, as well as paperbacks, vintage toys, and action figures. They also carry T-shirts and posters. "We don't carry video games and we don't deal in sports merchandise," the owner added.

The board games found at Q's are not what is typically available in the big box stores. Q's caters to the special interest offering classic games with a pop-culture twist. Among the most popular are Monopoly—The Walking Dead; Clue—Harry Potter; and Battleship—Pirates of the Caribbean. "The best-selling board game is Munchkin, and we have a monthly "Munchkin Day," Quertermous noted. Our most popular role-playing game is Dungeons and Dragons."

You will find Q's Comics & Games: Your one-stop shop for comics and collectibles, at 222 North Walnut in Dexter. Their business hours are noon to midnight Monday through Friday, and 10:00 to midnight on Saturday. Sunday hours are noon to 5:00.

#DexterFirst Ted's Sport Shop By Nancy Vines

DECEMBER 20TH 2017 BY DEE LOFLIN

Located on West Business Highway 60, nestled between a hair salon and furniture rental company, is Ted's Sport Shop. Ted Denkins has been in business in this spot for 45 years, and his parents owned a TV repair shop there before that. "All told," says Denkins, "my family has occupied this building for about 63 years."

Ted's Sport Shop was originally a bait and fishing tackle business that he began with his brother-in-law; however, bait shops quickly became popular in Dexter, so Denkins decided to change the focus of his store. An avid competitive archer, he began to merchandise archery equipment rather than fishing.

Denkins and his brother Bill participated in Olympic-Style competitions for many years. One wall of his business is lined with awards attesting to their skill in this physically demanding sport. "I still bow hunt, but no longer enter the competitions" he said. "Both Bill and I shot at the trials for the 1980 Summer Olympics, which were to be held in Moscow. Bill made it, but I did not. Sadly, though, that was the year the US boycotted the Olympics because of the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan. They held a SportsFest in Texas instead." Denkins recalled. "It wasn't the same."

Ted's Sport Shop carries all types of new and used bows, arrows, hunting accessories, and some hunting apparel. In addition, he repairs bows and makes bows and arrows. "I'm not as fast as I used to be," he says, "but I'm better. I'm still learning."

Ted's Sport Shop is located at 109 West Business Highway 60 in Dexter. Business hours are Monday through Friday 9:00 to 5:00 and Saturday 9:00 to 1:00.
