Mark Zabelin Celebrates 15 Years with Farm Credit

APRIL 12TH 2018 BY DEE LOFLIN

Mark Zabelin Celebrates 15 Years with Farm Credit

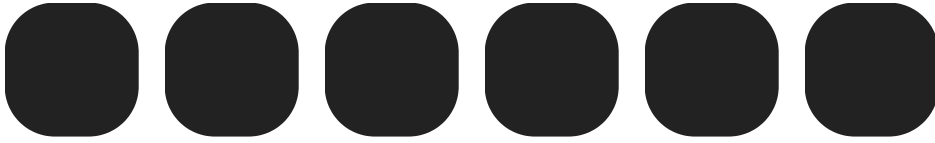

Farm Credit Southeast Missouri President & CEO Bob Smith is very pleased to congratulate Mark Zabelin, Vice President/Branch Manager at the Dexter Branch, on reaching 15 years of service with Farm Credit.

Smith stated, “Mark had substantial experience working directly with farmers when he joined us in 2003 and has honed his lending skills over the years working with interesting credits, including many large and complex ones. Being highly respected as a lender, he was promoted to VP / Branch Manager last year, and is working hard in his new role, developing and growing the branch office further. Farm Credit is very fortunate to have Mark as a member of the Farm Credit team. He is one of the reasons that Farm Credit can be considered the premier agricultural lender in Southeast Missouri.”
