Dexter, Missouri - First Midwest Bank customers will experience a new rewards program unlike anything in the area with the launch of the First Midwest Buzz Points reward program.

Similar to rewards programs offered by national banking institutions and credit card companies, the Buzz Points program allows customers to earn points every time they use their debit cards. Points can then be used at local and national retailers or can be redeemed as monetary donations to local charities.

“At First Midwest, we are committed not only to our customers, but also to our local communities,” said Joey McLane, Bank President, and CEO. “One of the key components that drew us to the Buzz Points program was its focus on shopping locally.”

.Customers will earn more points by shopping with local merchants who have partnered with First Midwest and Buzz Points, providing a unique opportunity for local businesses to advertise to a highly-engaged audience.

All points are tracked online or through a mobile app and participants are notified of new promotions when they are within a 1000 ft radius of a participating merchant with a special offer.

First Midwest Buzz Points is available for all First Midwest debit cardholders. For more information or to enroll, visit www.onemidwest.com/buzzpoints or visit a First Midwest location.

Identifying your personality and the personalities of others using True Colors provides you with insights into different motivations, actions and communication approaches. True Colors works because it is based on true principles and easy to remember and use – in all kinds of circumstances – from personal relationships to

Local Rotary Officers Attend Leadership Training

MARCH 28TH 2018 BY DEE LOFLIN

Local Rotary Officers Attend Leadership Training

Jefferson City, Missouri - David L Ellinghouse, Secretary-Elect and Danny Talkington, President-Elect of the Rotary Club in Dexter, Missouri for the year beginning July 1, recently attended the 40th Annual Show Me Rotary Leadership Institute, March 23-24, 2018.

Rotary International President-Elect Barry Rassin from Nassau, Bahamas, was the keynote speaker for the two-day training event, which was held at the Capitol Plaza Hotel in Jefferson City.

The Show Me Rotary Leadership Institute comprises three Rotary districts working cooperatively. This cooperation makes it possible to attract senior Rotary leaders from around the nation and world.

Missouri has 160 Rotary Clubs and approximately 7,700 members statewide. As president of Rotary International, Rassin will lead a worldwide organization comprising 1.3 million Rotarians in 35,000 clubs in 200 different countries.

Each year more than 300 future leaders of Rotary in Missouri gather at Show Me Rotary for an educational program designed to prepare them for their responsibilities in the upcoming year. They receive training on such topics as managing and leading a Rotary club, engaging members and building strong clubs.

The institute also helps them become knowledgeable about topics such as the humanitarian projects of Rotary, world peace initiatives, efforts to eradicate polio and how to assess and serve community needs. Attendees also hear from Rotarian leaders, who share inspiring stories.

Rotarians and other donors fund The Rotary Foundation, considered one of the most outstanding philanthropic organizations in the world with a score of 100 percent and four stars in Charity Navigator.

Rotary is perhaps best known as the chief motivating force behind the efforts to eradicate polio. Along the way, Rotarians, in cooperation with the World Health Organization, have made inroads in developing distribution systems for medicines and vaccines for polio and numerous other diseases which have saved, and will continue to help, individuals around the world.

Utilizing the motto “Service Above Self,” Rotary members believe they have a shared responsibility to take action on the world’s most persistent issues. Rotary clubs work together to promote peace; fight disease; provide clean water, sanitation and hygiene; save mothers and children; support education; and grow local economies.

Ellinghouse is employed at County Wide Insurance Agency in Dexter and has been involved in Rotary for four years. David also is a Past-President of the Rotary Club of Dexter.
