DHS Art Students Have Work Shown at SEMO

Dexter, Missouri - Four Dexter High school art students have nine pieces of work among them accepted by the Southeast Missouri State University Art Department.

Those selected pieces will appear at the 41st Annual High School Art Exhibition entitled the Exhibition of Excellence from now until March 17th.

The exhibition will appear at the Rosemary Berkel and Harry L. Crisp II Museum at Southeast Missouri State University's River Campus in Cape Girardeau.

From left to right are Savannah Gourley, Jillian Avery, Madeline Ayers, and Addyson Green.

Two students received awards for their artwork.

Gourley earned second place in drawing and mixed media and honorable mention in fibers.

Avery earned third place in printmaking and mixed media.
