Callie Welker Joins Business Development Team

Callie Welker, RD, LD, has joined the SoutheastHEALTH Business Development team as Physician and HealthWorks Specialist.

Welker is a registered dietitian and also is a certified by the American College of Sports Medicine as a personal trainer.

SoutheastHEALTH Vice President of Marketing and Business Development Shauna Hoffman says Welker comes to Southeast with “demonstrated skills in leadership and organization. Her outstanding professional background includes six years of sales experience and an in-depth knowledge of the health insurance industry. In these roles, she has established invaluable relationships within the community.”

Welker holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Health Management, Exercise Science Option, and a Bachelor of Science degree in Dietetics, both from Southeast Missouri State University.

“I’m excited to join such a dynamic team of individuals committed to promoting community health awareness,” she said. “I am looking forward to fusing my passion for wellness with sales and marketing.”

Welker is active in the community. She currently serves as president of the Cape Girardeau Jaycee’s Golf Advisory Board. Welker is also the local Care to Learn Chapter President, a member of Zonta International and a member of the Old Town Cape Organizational Committee.

Her professional affiliations include the American Dietetic Association and the American College of Sports Medicine.
