Dana Adams Promoted to Vice President of First Midwest Bank

Dexter, Missouri - The Board of Directors of First Midwest Bank of Dexter recently announced that Dana Adams will assume the role of Vice President of Operations.

With 25 years in the financial services industry, Adams joined First Midwest Bank of Dexter in 2018. Dana has served in various operations and lending roles throughout her banking career, allowing her to bring a unique perspective and experience to the newly created role.

“We are pleased to have Dana working with our operations staff to fulfill the banking needs of our customers in Dexter and the markets we serve,” said Jerry Dorton, Executive Vice President.

Dana and her husband Travis are Dexter natives. They have two daughters, Karsen and Kendall, who both graduated from Dexter High School. Dana has been active in various civic and community organizations including the Chamber of Commerce, Booster Club and 18 Fore Life.

Dana and Travis are die-hard Ole Miss fans and enjoy visiting Oxford, MS for events throughout the year while visiting both daughters who have attended school there.

“I am excited to have the opportunity and privilege to work with our talented staff in serving our customers, friends, and neighbors in Dexter,” Adams said.
