Congressman Jason Smith Announces Cape Area Student Winner of 2020 Congressional Art Competition

Congressman Jason Smith (R-MO) announced that Madi Holt of Advance High School has been selected as the overall winner for Missouri's Eighth Congressional District in the 2020 Congressional Art Competition. Holt's work "Patriotism Lives On" will be displayed in the U.S. Capitol Building for one year.

"I was blown away by the quality of the artwork we received this year from across southern Missouri," said Congressman Smith. "First, let me say congratulations to Madi for being chosen as this year's winner. Not only is her piece stunning, but its depiction of one of our nation's veterans is the perfect representation of southern Missouri to hang in the halls of the U.S. Capitol. I encourage everyone to visit our virtual arty gallery, to see some of the incredible artistic skill that resides in our area."

Congressman Smith also announced the Top 20 pieces of art that are now hanging in the virtual art gallery available. In total, Congressman Smith's office accepted nearly 150 submissions from local high school artists.

Here is a complete list of the Top 20 students and their pieces of art:
