In Memory of Teresa Fuwell Allen

Teresa Fuwell Allen was born September 20, 1960 to Hilda and Freemond Fuwell in Chicago, Illinois.

Teresa gained her heavenly wings on January 6, 2021, she peacefully left this world surrounded by the ones she loved the most at her home in Bloomfield, Missouri. She fiercely battled cancer for over 2 years and showed us the true meaning of a fighting spirit.

She unconditionally loved her children, Bryan Bowling, Brookie Morton, Baylee Allen, and Brandon Allen; to her extended children she loved as her own Krystal, Stacey, Sharon, James Michael, and Allen. She deeply cherished her grandchildren, Madison, Ava, Brylee, Sawyer, Tucker, Easton, and Brynleigh. Along with her "kids" at Fuwell's RCF, Teresa leaves behind many cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

Teresa was incredibly strong and while she taught us many things, the lesson that will always remain is that family is everything.

She was preceded in death by her father, Freemond Fuwell; her mother, Hilda Fuwell; her grandmother, Helen Prince; her sister, Debbie Graebner; Kevin Quillman, Tom Quillman, and loving fiancé, James Hastings; along with many other loved ones.

Services will be held Saturday, January 9, 2021 at Mathis Funeral Home in Dexter, Missouri. Visitation is scheduled from 12:00 p.m. until 3:00pm with a service immediately following with Rev. Lonnie Vickers officiating.

Mathis Funeral Home in Dexter is in charge of arrangements.
