Middle School Students Perform La La Land Law

Dexter, MO - T.S. Hill Middle School students performed La La Land Law at the Dexter High School on Thursday, February 26, 2021.

"It's a smaller cast than in past years," commented Jessica Jinkerson, 8th grade Social Studies teacher. "I'm just glad we got to perform in the midst of the Covid-19 pandemic."

"They worked very hard and I am pleased with the results."

Percival S. Wolf, played by Kyle Warren, stands accused of pushing Humpty Dumpty off the wall near the king's castle. Humpty, who survives his famous fall with all his injuries tells a forlorn tale of persecution by Wolf throughout his childhood years.

Witnesses for the prosecution led by attorney Mr. Larry Payson played by Corbin Williams, were Captain Woodrow Soldier played by Ethan Glaus, Dorky Pig played by Caleb Gott, and Wanda Godmother played by Lydia Hanner.

Was he guilty or innocent? The courtroom drama played out well with even commercials for the audience to view.
