23rd Annual 100 Mile Yard Sale Brings Money to Local Businesses

Good news for bargain hunters! The Annual 100-Mile Yard Sale will go as planned for Memorial Day weekend. This brings a tremendous amount of money to local businesses. The event will be held from Thursday, May 27th - Monday, May 31st

Sellers and customers are encouraged to use caution. Please wear masks, gloves, and practice social distancing as much as possible. Use your eyes and not your hands to shop before purchasing.

The 100 Mile Yard Sale brings people from all over the country to Highway 25 between Kennett and Jackson, Missouri. The three Chambers that typically promote the event are Dexter, Kennett and Jackson.

Remember to bring cash, especially small bills. Most sellers don't accept checks or credit cards.

Some of the towns along the way include Gordonville, Dutchtown, Delta, Advance, Aquila, Bloomfield, Dexter, Bernie, Malden, Clarkton, Kennett, and more.

Please check with your local municipalities if you have a question with regards to whether your town has passed a new ordinance prohibiting yard sales. To my knowledge none of the Stoddard County municipalities have a ban as of the time of this article.
