In Memory of Revalee Minton

JULY 09TH 2021 BY DEE LOFLIN

In Memory of Revalee Minton

Revalee Minton, daughter of the late Eugene Barker and Louise Corlies Barker, was born on April 25, 1931, in rural Dexter, Missouri, and departed this life on July 7, 2021, at her residence in Dexter, Missouri, at the age of 90 years.

Mrs. Minton began her teaching career in a one room schoolhouse at Pyle R-9 in the mid 1950's. She retired from teaching as a 4th grade teacher at Central Elementary in Dexter, after over 25 years in the Dexter School System. As a Dexter teacher, she was selected to learn Braille in order to assist a blind student. She taught every grade from 1st to 6th in that period to tutor that student.

Revalee was one of the founders of the Dexter Heritage Association and the Dexter Heritage Museum; and was instrumental in the renovation of the Dexter Heritage House. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She also authored a multiple narrative book about the Pleasant Grove Community Church and Pyletown Community. Many people wrote and sent pictures about their own history and memories and were included in the book. She loved genealogy and preserving history for our future generations. And she especially loved her Church. She was also named the 1987 Farm Wife of the Year by SEMO Magazine.

She was united in marriage to Kenneth D. Minton on December 22, 1950, in Piggott, Arkansas. Mr. Minton preceded her in death on February 22, 2020.

She is survived by one son, Ken Minton and wife Blanchie of Dexter; by one daughter, Kay Barnes and husband Bobby of Bernie; by three grandchildren, Michelle Barnes, Michael Barnes, and Kyle Minton; by three great-grandchildren, Hunter Barnes, Melissa Barnes, and Adriana Minton; and by her sister, Marilyn Irvin of O'Fallon, Missouri.

Other than by her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by her son, Kenneth Dale Minton; by her granddaughter, Melissa Sue Barnes; and by her sister, Barbara Davis.

Visitation will be held at Mathis Funeral Home in Dexter on Sunday, July 11, 2021, from 12:00 p.m. until 2:00 p.m.

Funeral services will then be conducted in the Mathis Funeral Home Chapel on Sunday, July 11, 2021, at 2:00 p.m. with Rev. Paul Pierce officiating.

Interment will follow in Sycamore Cemetery.
