9th Annual Liberty Days Set for October 1st and 2nd

The public is invited to come out to the Stars and Stripes Museum and Library on October 1st and 2nd for their Liberty Days 2021 celebration.

Over the course of two days, the museum will have reenactors, historians, and special presenters on site to teach guests of all ages about the significance of our nation's military timeline, from pre-civil war all the way into our modern engagements.

Many other special events will be taking place over the weekend as well.

Blind Velvet, Joyful Noise, and Clifton Hoffmann will be providing live entertainment throughout the day on Saturday.

Willy Bill's BBQ and Abuela's Mexican Kitchen will be providing food both days and there will be a vendor market craft show set up in the parking lot of the museum also.

Admission is free to all guests.

The event will be open from 8-4 on Friday, October 1st and 10-4 on Saturday, October 2nd
