Sikeston Jaycees Create Scholarship at Three Rivers College for Students on Rodeo Team

Sikeston, MO - After creating an endowed scholarship last year with the Three Rivers Endowment Trust, the Sikeston Jaycees have made a $22,000 contribution to fully fund the $1,000 annual award to a member of the TRC Rodeo Team.

“Our organization is committed to advancing the sport of rodeo, as well as higher education in Southeast Missouri,” Jaycee President Jacob Rutledge said. “We are thrilled to make this investment that will provide financial assistance to TRC Rodeo students for perpetuity.”

The endowed scholarship fund will only award the interest earned from the fund, allowing perpetual funding for the scholarships. The Jaycees made their initial $5,000 installment for the fund last year.

“This scholarship will make a big difference in the lives of many TRC rodeo students for years to come,” said Michelle Reynolds, Director of Development and Executive Director of the Endowment Trust.

For more information about setting up an endowed scholarship or donating to general scholarship funds, call 573-840-9077 or email michellereynolds@trcc.edu.

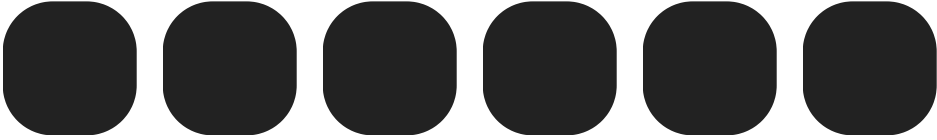

The Three Rivers Endowment Trust is a 501(c)(3) organization that receives and manages donations on behalf of Three Rivers College. For information on creating or donating to scholarships, building projects, or other college needs, contact the Development Office at 573-840-9077.

Three Rivers College is committed to contributing to the quality of life in Southeast Missouri with quality, affordable higher education opportunities and community services that support and encourage the economic, civic, and cultural vitality of the region.
