In Memory of Peggy Jean Snider Hardin

SEPTEMBER 05TH 2022 BY DEE LOFLIN

In Memory of Peggy Jean Snider Hardin

Peggy Jean Snider Hardin, daughter of the late Carl Edward and Lerlen Jackson Snider, was born April 29, 1937, passed away Friday, September 2, 2022, peacefully in her home surrounded by her family, at the age of 85.

Ms. Hardin was an active member of the LaValle Baptist Church, where she enjoyed singing. She was the Parma Cub Scout Leader for many years. Peggy had a contagious smile that made everyone feel welcomed and loved. She was an avid Cardinals fan and never missed a game. Peggy loved crocheting, gardening, traveling and her beloved chickens. She looked forward to sunny summer days and watching the great-grandkids swim in the pool. Peggy loved nothing more than her family and spending time on the farm.

Peggy is survived by her sons, Edward Dale Hardin of Parma, Missouri, and Yancey (Angela) Hardin of Catron, Missouri; grandchildren, Bradley Hardin of Catron, Missouri, Sarah (Jarrett) Lawfield of Kewanee, Missouri, Ben (Amanda) Hardin, Casey (Trey) White of Catron, Missouri, Jessica (John) Hunter of Dexter, Missouri, and Stephanie Pannell of Paducah, Kentucky; brother, Dallas (Marcie) Snider of Parma, Missouri; sisters, Charlotte (Dale) Griffin of Dexter, Missouri, and Dot (Doyle) Mekan of Arnold, Missouri; sixteen great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild; several cousins, nieces and nephews.

Other than her parents, she was preceded in death by the father of her children, Hubert Hardin; one daughter, Leila Dodson; one daughter-in-law, Linda Hardin; one son-in-law,

Jon Dodson; two brothers, Norman and Ray Snider; two sisters, Fay and Linda Snider; and one sister-in-law, Sue Snider.

The family would like to thank Legacy Hospice for their compassionate care during this difficult time.

Mathis Funeral Home in Dexter is assisting with arrangements.
