2022 Puxico High School Sports Senior Night Honored the Memory of Drake Guffey

The Puxico High School is proud to have student athletes who represent the school well, through their hard work both on the court and in the classroom. Tonight they honored their senior athletes for their last season and representing the Puxico Indians.

At this time the senior basketball teammates would like to take this opportunity to honor their teammate, by asking the family of Drake Guffey, to join them on the court.

Drake was their teammate throughout many years and would have graduated in 2023. He was the son of Brian Guffey and Jessica Fleeman.

The seniors and Puxico School District would like the family to know they are loved and Drake will never be forgotten.

They then had a moment of silence dedicated to the memory of Drake Guffey.

Guffey was 14 years of age and passed on September 14, 2019.
