In Memory of Rebecca Charlene Richmann

JANUARY 08TH 2024 BY DEE LOFLIN

In Memory of Rebecca Charlene Richmann

Rebecca Charlene Richmann, known to her loved ones as "Becky," passed away peacefully at her residence in Puxico, Missouri on January 5, 2024. She was born on July 12, 1951, in Dexter, Missouri to Lyman Francis Fowler and Mary Belle Scott.

Becky had a fulfilling career as an Accountant at Morlan Automotive, where she dedicated her time and skills. Her meticulous work ethic and attention to detail made her an invaluable asset to the company. Colleagues remember her for her professionalism, commitment, and unwavering dedication to her craft.

Outside of work, Becky was an active member of Corinth General Baptist Church. She loved and faithfully served as the piano player for many years.

In her personal life, Becky had a wide range of interests and hobbies. She delighted in going shopping and would often spend hours exploring stores in search of unique treasures. But perhaps what brought her the greatest joy was loving on her grandsons. Those precious moments spent with them were filled with laughter, love, and cherished memories. Additionally, Becky loved embarking on trips with her friends, creating lifelong bonds and unforgettable adventures along the way.

On the journey of life, Becky was fortunate to find immense love and companionship in Curtis Richmann. They shared 49 wonderful years as husband and wife. Curtis stood by her side through thick and thin, providing unwavering support and endless love until the time of his passing in April of 2022.

Becky is survived by two daughters who meant the world to her: Shelly (and husband Allen) Clark of Puxico and Amanda (and husband Jason) Fortner of Bloomfield. Her grandchildren were the light of her life, and she leaves behind four adoring grandsons: Brad Clark, Jeff Clark, Trevor Fortner, and Tyler Fortner.

The bonds of family are eternal, and Becky leaves behind a strong support network. She is also survived by two brothers: Dennis (and wife Ava) Fowler of Advance, Missouri, and Kenny (and wife Bambi) Fowler of Jackson, Missouri. Her sister Tammy (and husband Joe) Wilson of Puxico, Missouri will hold her memory close to their hearts.

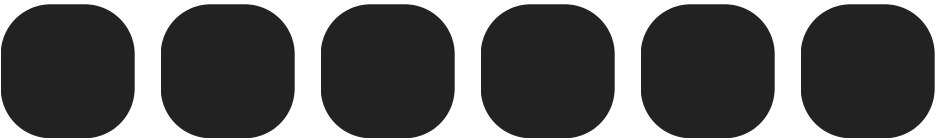

The visitation for Becky will take place on January 9, 2024, at Watkins Funeral Homes in Puxico, Missouri. Friends and loved ones who wish to pay their respects can join between 5:00 PM to 8:00 PM. The funeral service will follow on January 10, 2024, commencing at 11:30 AM at the same location, with Brother Jim Clark of Puxico officiating. Finally, Becky's interment will take place at the Missouri St. Veteran's Cemetery in Bloomfield on January 10, 2024. The interment ceremony is scheduled for 1:00 PM.

Becky's positive spirit and zest for life will be dearly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her. May her legacy live on in the hearts of those she touched with her kindness, love, and beautiful music. Though she may no longer be physically present among us, her soulful melodies will forever echo in our memories. Rest in peace, dear Becky—you have left an indelible imprint on our lives.

In Memory of Ryan Scott Speakman

In Memory of Ryan Scott Speakman

In loving memory of Ryan Scott Speakman, a vibrant soul whose passion for life illuminated the world around him. Ryan, age 21, departed from us on January 2, 2024, leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of those fortunate enough to know him.

Born on July 24, 2002, Ryan, immediately dubbed Bubba, embraced a position of love and support for those around him. Armed with an unrivaled intuition, an aim to aid, he created a place of comfort for those he loved. In his early years, his compassion began with a "look, I made you a spot." or "I got you a present to make you feel better." His considerate nature and compassion only grew with each passing day.

Bubba embraced the wonders of learning, immersing himself in the world of literature, engaging in spirited debates, and nurturing a profound love for the arts. His dream of running an art store coupled with a cozy coffee shop, where personal connections could thrive, reflected his deep appreciation for human connection.

Bubba aspired to explore the beauty of our diverse world. His zest for life extended to his love for games and anime, bringing joy and laughter to gatherings with friends. His genuine affection for everyone, especially his nieces and nephews, created a warm and welcoming presence.

Bubba's role as "Uncle Bubba" began in 2008, marking the start of a beautiful chapter in his life. From the age of 6, he embraced the responsibilities of unclehood with sincerity, ensuring each niece and nephew felt cherished and unique. His genuine interest in their pursuits, whether it was playing "pee pie" or offering artistic guidance, solidified bonds and provided a love that will endure for a lifetime.

He is survived by his parents, Paul Speakman and Julie Wilson Speakman of Jackson, Missouri; by two brothers, Josh Speakman and wife Keandra of Advance, Missouri, and Dillan Wilhite of Jackson, Missouri; by three sisters, Emily Maddox and husband Robert of Lake Wappapello, Missouri, Jessica Hildebrand of Scott City, Missouri, and Kayli Leible and husband Andrew of Benton, Missouri; by his best friend, Derek Mathena; by his maternal grandparents, Carl Joe and Sheila Wilson of Sikeston, Missouri, and Lee Hufford (Bruno O’Guinn) of Poplar Bluff, Missouri; by his paternal grandparents, Howard and Paula Pikey of DeRidder, Louisiana; by eleven nieces and nephews, Knava Speakman, Josh Speakman II, Mariah Johnson, Shiloh Price, Morrighan Maddox, Robert Maddox, Bennett Scott Wilhite, Ashlynn Hildebrand, Tage Hildebrand, Emeri Leible, and Clayton Leible; and by lots of loving aunts, uncles and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Larry Hufford; his paternal grandmother, Pauline Pikey; and by his paternal grandfather, Colin Speakman.

In celebrating Bubba's life, let us remember the love he showered upon us all. His absence leaves a void, but his spirit lives on through the memories of joy, laughter, and connections he shared with everyone. The world was undoubtedly brighter with Bubba in it, and his legacy of love will forever echo in our hearts.

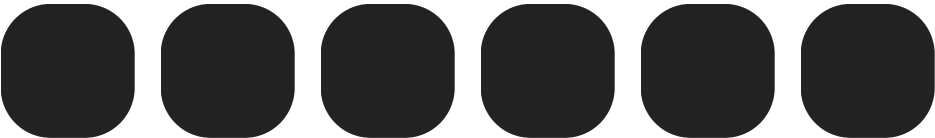

Visitation will be held at Mathis Funeral Home in Dexter on Monday, January 8, 2024, from 12:00 p.m. until 2:00 p.m. Funeral services will then be conducted in the Mathis Funeral Home Chapel on Monday, January 8, 2024, at 2:00 p.m. Interment will follow in the Bernie Cemetery.

Mathis Funeral Home in Dexter is assisting with arrangements.

In Memory of Joan Wyrick Bogle Dabbs

JANUARY 04TH 2024 BY DEE LOFLIN

In Memory of Joan Wyrick Bogle Dabbs

Joan Wyrick Bogle Dabbs September 29, 1942 — December 29, 2023 Nixa, Missouri

Joan Wyrick Bogle Dabbs, age 81 of Nixa, Missouri, formally of Dexter, Missouri, passed away on December 29, 2023.

She was born in Flora, Illinois on September 29, 1942. She was the daughter of Merlin and Maxine Bogle. She was a strong and brave young woman who following graduation at the age of 17 moved away for work in Aurora, Illinois. It was there where she met Gail, a “hillbilly” in her words. After some convincing, she agreed to go out with him. They were married on August 10, 1962, after a brief courtship and remained happily married for 54 years until he passed away in April of 2016.

She and Gail had one daughter, Tracy, who she considered to be her best friend over the years. She had one grandson, Josh, whom she adored. There was nothing she wouldn’t do for her family.

Joan was a loving and supportive friend throughout her life, always offering to lend a helping hand when needed. Joan and Gail were active in their church in Dexter, Missouri. She loved to spend time with and travel with family, and shop for the latest styles and jewelry. Her love for accumulating clothes and shoes was legendary in her family. She was also known to host large garage sales due to this fact. Joan loved spending time with friends in Dexter and enjoyed playing bingo. Joan enjoyed entertaining and engaging in a good conversation, but she also loved her afternoon naps. We all knew to never mess with her during nap time. She loved to go out and eat and her favorite splurge was always lobster. She loved animals and had several pets throughout her life. Joan always had a knack for decorating. Her house was always as "neat as a pin"as long as no one opened the cabinets. Family was always important to Joan. She was always supportive of Gail's business adventures and of Tracy, spending endless hours on phone calls during college, offering advice, assisting in apartment hunts, decorating, etc. She loved her weekly excursions with Tracy to have her hair and nails done, lunch and of course, shopping. She and Gail were entrepreneurs who owned several different businesses over the course of their marriage. As they retired, they loved to hop in their little RV and take road trips with family. They also enjoyed taking short getaways to hit casinos where she almost always ended up being luckier than Gail.

Joan is survived by her daughter, Tracy and her husband Jerry Henry, Nixa; her grandson Josh Henry, Springfield; several brothers and sisters in law, Margie Bogle, Flora, Illinois, Elsie Heller, Hallsville, Missouri, Jim and Sue Collins, Springfield, Missouri, Neil and Shirley Dabbs, Fisk, Missouri, Erma Dabbs, California, Missouri, LeaVern Dabbs, Cape Girardeau, Missouri, and Jim and June Novlan, Princeton, Illinois; as well as a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Joan was preceded in death by her husband Gail Dabbs; her parents, Merlin and Maxine Bogle; a brother Jim Bogle; and many beloved members of her husband's family.

The family would like to extend a special thanks to Intrepid Hospice, especially Brooke, for the loving care given to Joan. Also, the family would like to thank the staff at Township Senior Living and a special thank you to Hannah, Amber, Tina, Terri, Evelyn, Julie, Becky, Vanessa and Amy who added joy to her life over the past year.

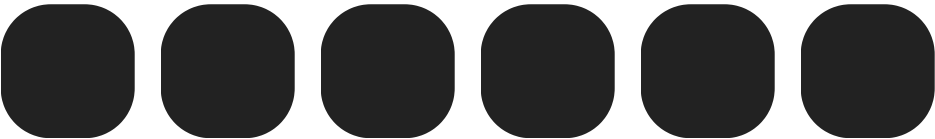

A visitation will be from 1:00 PM-2:00 p.m. on Friday, January 5, 2024, at Adams Funeral Home, Nixa. A brief service will immediately follow at 2:00 p.m. with Chaplain Randy Martin from Intrepid Hospice Officiating. The burial will follow at McConnell-Bledsoe Cemetery in Nixa.
