In Memory of Randal O. Breece

APRIL 01ST 2024 BY DEE LOFLIN

In Memory of Randal O. Breece

Randal O. Breece, a cherished man, employed with Proctor and Gamble for 28 years in a distinguished management position, has bid us farewell. His journey on this earth began in Parma, Missouri, on November 25, 1937, to parents Marvin Leo and Edna Viola (Sanders) Breece, and peacefully reached its end in Jackson, Missouri, on March 27, 2024.

Randal was not only a successful professional but also a proud United States Veteran, having served in the Air Force. His commitment to his work and country was truly admirable.

Education played a significant role in Randal's life as he graduated from Bernie High School before furthering his studies at Southeast Missouri State University. His dedication to learning and growing was evident throughout his career and personal endeavors.

Beyond his professional achievements and military service, Randal found joy in being a proud member of the Masonic Lodge. His involvement in the lodge spoke volumes about his character and values.

Randall married the love of his life Cassandra "Saunie" (Baldwin) Breece in Cape Girardeau, Missouri on July 18, 1959, and remained married until the time of her passing on December 24, 2015.

In the hearts of those who knew him best, Randal will be remembered for his kindness, generosity, and unwavering spirit. He touched the lives of many and leaves behind a legacy that will continue to inspire.

Randal now rests peacefully but is survived by two sisters, Pauline and husband Buddy Baldwin and Lavada and husband Jack Oaker from Cuba, Missouri. He also leaves behind his special friend Carolyn Thompson who shared many memorable moments by his side.

In loving memory of Randal O. Breece are his parents Marvin Leo Breece and Edna Viola (Sanders) Breece who welcomed him into this world with love. His beloved wife, Cassandra "Saunie" Breece and his siblings Tom Breece, Doyle & Carol Breece, Buck & Bea Breece; Lavern & Jean Ohr, Betty & JW Lawrence, Wilma & Sonny Baker; whom he cherished dearly.

Services to honor Randal's life will be held at Watkins Funeral Homes in Dexter, Missouri on Wednesday, April 3, 2024.

The visitation will take place from 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM followed by the funeral service at 11:00 AM.

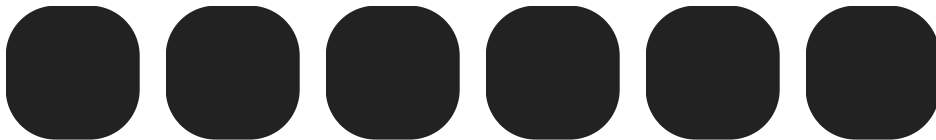

The interment ceremony will then be held at Missouri State Veterans Cemetery in Bloomfield from 12:00 PM to 1:00 PM.

May we find solace in the memories we shared with Randal and hold dear the lessons he imparted during his time among us. Rest in peace, dear Randal O. Breece; your presence will be deeply missed but never forgotten.
