Jamie was born on March 14, 2019, in Columbia, Missouri, the son of Jesse Allen and Sarah Elizabeth (Strickland) Tweedy.

Jamie was a sweet, funny, and whitty little momma's boy who LOVED everything Pokemon. He loved collecting and sorting cards with his dad, watching and directing his dad while playing Pokemon games on the switch, and collecting Pokemon battle figures and stuffies. Jamie loved to be around family and friends. He enjoyed watching movies with his big sister and "little big sister", was a complete remote hog, and had to always have the fans going. He always looked forward to visisting Ms.Jody's daycare and enjoyed going on trips to visit family where he would go fishing with his Papa Jim, Aunt Becca and Uncle Beau; ride four wheelers, feed the animals, and catch crawdads in the creek. Jamie had the biggest heart. He loved cuddles, soaking up attention, being a night owl with mommy, and had the best memory. He could remember everything. He touched the lives of so many in his short 5 years here with us, and will be terribly missed by all of those who knew and loved him, especially his family.

Survivors include his parents, Jesse and Sarah Tweedy of the home; two sisters, Addison and Eleanor Tweedy of the home; maternal grandparents, Jim and Ruth Strickland of Bloomfield; paternal grandparents, Allen Tweedy of Alton and Jennifer Burkhead of Mexico; paternal great-grandparents, Carl and Shirley Burkhead of Mexico; maternal great-grandmother, MaryAnn Malone of Dexter; aunts and uncles, Jessica (Eddie) Bonilla and their family of Ludowici, Georgia, Rebecca (Beau) Baker and their family of Elsinore, Ashley Tweedy (Matt Harmon) and their family of St. Clair, and Keith Brawley of Mexico; and a godfather, Uncle Jared (Aunt Amanda) Blau and their child of DeSoto.

Memorial donations may be given to assist in purchase of Jamie's headstone and erecting future park and playground equipment in honor of Jamie. Donations will be accepted through Venmo (JT-CLI) or by check. Checks to be made payable to Jesse Tweedy and may be sent in care of Arnold Funeral Home, 425 S. Jefferson Street, Mexico, MO 65265.
