Puxico Teachers Honored at Retirement Dinner

JUNE 21ST 2024 BY DEE LOFLIN

Puxico Teachers Honored at Retirement Dinner

The Puxico CEA hosted its annual Retirement and Awards Banquet at the end of the school year.

The annual banquet also celebrated the contributions and upcoming retirement of some of its valuable staff members.

Mrs. Annette Frazier joined the Puxico R-8 District and served one year as junior high Communication Arts teacher. Mrs. Frazier is retiring with 24 total years of service in the education field.

Mrs. Marla Clark is also on track to enjoy retirement after 31 years of teaching in public education, of which 28 years were spent in the Puxico School District.

While at Puxico, Mrs. Clark spent most of her time as a Kindertarten teacher before transitioning over to teach with the District's Federal Program and Title Services.

Celebrating her retirement as Elemetnary Principal, was Mrs. Tammy Thompson.

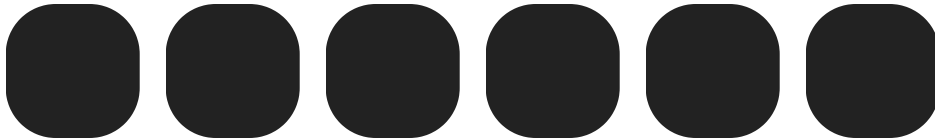

Mrs. Thompson first joined the staff at Puxico as the instructional coach and cirriculumn diretor before she was promoted to elementary principal.

Mrs. Thompson has served 32 years in public education, with the last 5 years being devoted to the Puxico School District.

Dexter FLBA is Collecting Gently Used or New Shoes

APRIL 22ND 2024 BY DEE LOFLIN

Dexter FLBA is Collecting Gently Used or New Shoes

Got any shoes you don't wear anymore?

Please bring these shoes, boots, sandals, sneakers, etc. because upstairs at the Dexter High School is a collection box for new, or gently used shoes.

FBLA is collecting them to be used as a fundraiser for Cy, Luke, Henley and Mrs. Guy to go to the National Leadership Conference this summer.

Future Business Leaders of America can accept adult and kids shoes, so ask your family if they have any they wish to donate.

There will also be donation boxes next week at the other buildings on the Dexter campus and the drive runs from now to June 14th.

Drop off at the Dexter High School or any building on the Dexter campus.
