Advance H.S. November Student of the Month - CJ Robinett

The Advance Student of the Month program is a new initiative to promote positive behaviors among students and recognize their achievements.

Each month, staff members can nominate students who demonstrate qualities like respect, initiative, teamwork, perseverance, and consistent performance.

The 10th, 11th or 12th grade winner for November was CJ Robinett.

The 10-12th grade winner for November is CJ. His nominator said, "CJ is one of the few students that has consistently submitted their work schedule on time, without the need for reminders, and always maintains a polite and respectful attitude. He has a consistent professionalism and strong work ethic. Having the responsibility to and courtesy to make sure his work schedule is handed in on time shows a high level of maturity and reliability." Congratulations, CJ!
