DHS Golf Team Finishes 4th at Notre Dame Invitational

The 2025 Dexter High School golf team kicked off their season at the Notre Dame Invitational at Dalhousie on Tuesday, March 25th.

The Bearcats finished fourth out of twelve teams.

Ben Christian tied for 3rd with a 75 earning a medal.

Tucker Temples was just short of a medal with an 86.

Will Guethle, Drake Carmode and Brenner Orton rounded out the squad.

"It was a great day for golf," commented Shawn Guethle, head coach. "Especially compared to last year's event. I am looking forward to a great year for the Bearcats."

The golf team will open at home on Wednesday, March 26th at Hidden Trails Golf Course at 4 p.m.
